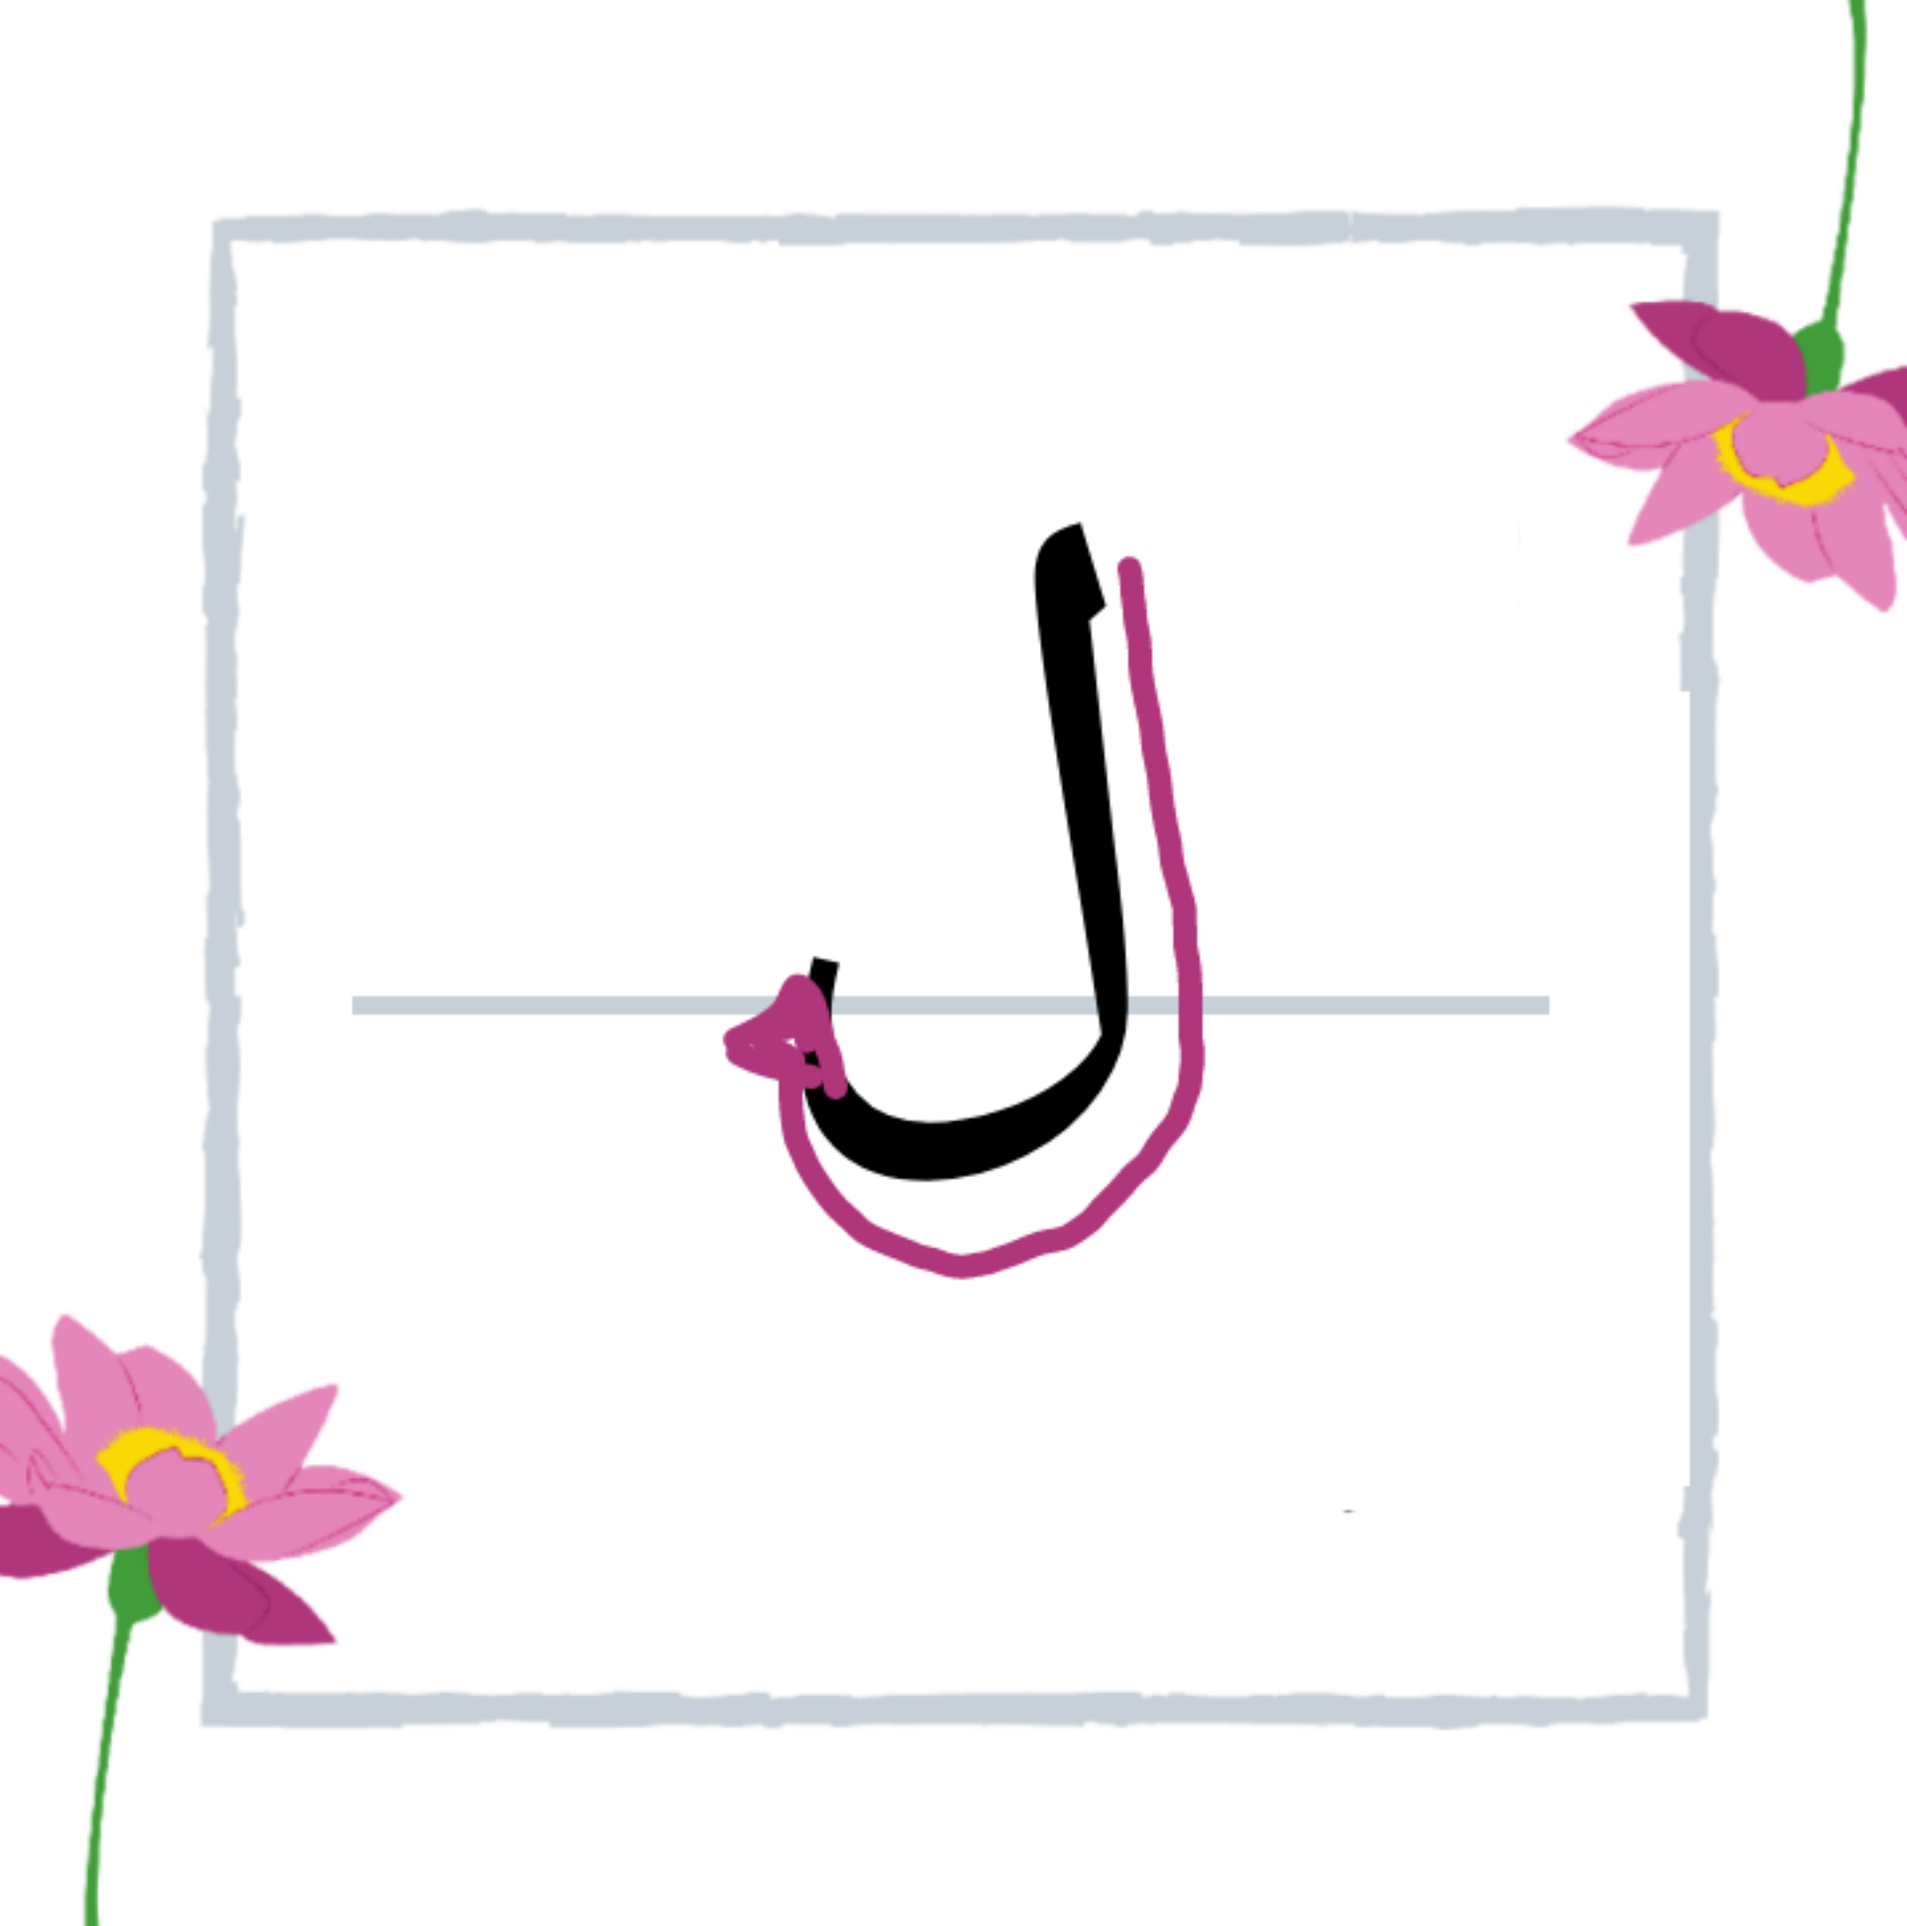
Lesson 19

The 23rd letter in the Arabic alphabet is the letter LAAM. The equivalent of the sound of the letter is the letter L like when we say 'lit'. It is a very soft letter.



With short vowels:

لَ لِ لُ

Heavy L sound

Soft L sound

ل

End	Middle	Beginning
ـل ل	ـلـ لـ	لـ

*When the ل comes in the middle, if preceded by a letter that doesn't allow joining then it will be written like in the beginning, and if it's preceded by a letter that doesn't allow joining when at the end it will be in its original form.

لُتِرَ أَلِ إِلَ